

An Investment in the Arts is an Investment in Our Community

Why make an investment in the creative spirit of Siskiyou County? Because creativity is essential to each individual and every community! We invite you to partner with the Arts Council and our commitment to promote the arts, provide services and assistance to artists and arts organizations and to expand the impact of arts, culture and heritage on the vitality and livability of our communities.

Investors at every level will automatically receive our newsletter, special notices and recognition on the Art Council's donor page. All contributions are tax deductible.
